50 years have passed since the war between the races, but even now some prejudices remain deep seated. We decided to move in order to escape from the judgmental gazes surrounding us.
Whichever race they're born into, manfolk and beastfolks forms always stay the same as they grow up.
so cases like Mama's where someone's form suddenly changes are an unexplained occurence.

Akari-san, just before I accidentally bumped into a really pretty person.
What kind of person?
How far is Mika's school?
It's on the edge of town, so it's about 40 minutes from the house.
From the town to my house is 30 minutes by foot! You're welcome to ask anytime if you want me to drive you.
Your luggage is in the back ♡
C'mon, squeeze your cute little butt in here.
CLINK
She had fluffy ears that pointed up...and silky-looking hair...
A dog woman?
Eh?
Ah, Y yeah, I think..
Dog-people make up the majority here.

And pretty eyes the color of the sky!
The next time we meet I'll have to apologise..
She was a little scary, huh...

As you can see, this is a town in the middle of nowhere.
After all, manfolk have lived here before, albert a considerably long time ago.
It's possible that you'll encounter people who look at you strangely but if anything troubles you, you can talk to me about it
That's right
In this town, Im not normal.
The town you lived in before was a district of equality. so I imagine you haven't had to worry about these kinds of things until now.
For the time being, just try to keep in mind that...

SLIP
You will be alright.
I'm sure of it! Before long, she'll be able to return to her original form.
